

My name is John Macdonald. I am a Cree person living outside of Fort McMurray. My family has lived on this land for many, many years. We live off the land, hunting and trapping. We depend on the trees and animals. The oil companies have destroyed millions of acres of land. It's getting harder to find food the ways that we used to, and I am scared for the future generations of my people.

Facts that help to support my opinion: