

My name is Tom Backhoe. I work as a superintendent on a job site where we dig thousands of tons of sand every week. I need this pay cheque to help provide for my four boys because my wife passed away six years ago. If I didn't have this job, my kids wouldn't be able to play hockey or snowboard, and I would struggle to provide them with their basic needs.

Facts that help to support my opinion: